

About Shawn Decker

As a motivational speaker, Shawn Decker has a dynamic personality with sought-after resources in business and professional circles for CEOs, small business owners, non-profit and community leaders. For a decade he has studied the science of value and has performed evaluations for billions of dollars in real estate on over 10,000 properties. He has spent time collaborating with successful business leaders and entrepreneurs, watching theory be translated into bottom-line results for his clients.

Shawn Decker is a leading authority on Value and energizes people to re-evaluate the world around them. He skillfully weaves his compelling life story to reflect the daily struggle in each one of our lives. He will give a new insight and perspective to cause a paradigm shift that will change the world around you.

He never tires of using his energies to impact the world, well-beyond the podium and public appearance. He meshes traditional and social media to empower his audiences. Thousands are interacting with him on YouTube, Facebook and other media platforms. It seems that everything he touches turns to Gold!

Shawn Decker has a powerful message and ability to connect with people on a deep and personal level from all walks of life. It isn't his great smile or his way with words that motivates people to take action but his understanding of how to create value in the face of life's roadblocks or adversity that creates lasting results.

Shawn Decker having a Bachelor's Degree in Theology, Master's Degree in Christian Counseling, Certification in Crisis Response, Certified Youth Mentor and is also a Certified Real Estate Appraiser with 26 other specialties being completed in this field alone.

Shawn Decker's straight-from-the-heart passion motivates individuals to step beyond their limitations and establish new ways of looking at things and that will transform their lives. Over the past decade, Shawn has created a one of a kind workshop on Value and the 5 main areas it affects you in your life. His struggles gave him a new vigor to strive for personal-and-professional development many years ago. It is his charisma, sincerity, and humor that help empowered ordinary people. By using his own life to challenges others, and to build an understanding of what works, what doesn't work, and why.

From birth he was given four hours to live, and it was said that even if he did live, that he would remain an invalid. From that beginning, he has used his determination, persistence and belief to go far beyond being a troubled teen, a dropout and a line cook, to unleash a course of amazing achievements.

Shawn Decker is committed to motivating and training today's generation to be achievers and leaders as he introduces new audiences every day to Running from Miracles and The Lost Art of Value. In business as well as in real life there are always ups and downs. However, where there is a will, there is always a way to achieve amazing results for your organization when you learn the principles of Value. Shawn Decker will fill the room with his high-impact, customized message and standing ovation performance!
